

MODERN MOTOR TRIMMERS

Modern Slavery Policy

POL MMT HR 0019

Last Reviewed	Gavin Maher
Next Review	31 May 2024

Modern Motor Trimmers understands it has an obligation to uphold certain duties pertaining to the Modern Slavery Act 2018.

There is no slavery within the Modern Motor Trimmers business.

Modern Motor Trimmers acknowledge we have a responsibility to prevent slavery and human trafficking within our supply chain. As such, we are committed to understanding those potential associated risks.

Within our business operation, we will establish and maintain processes that are aimed at:

- Providing full and productive employment for all people as per our Equal Opportunity Policy
- Conducting purchasing activities in a fair, objective, and transparent manner that satisfies the requirements of accountability;
- Taking immediate and effective measures if slavery is suspected;
- Communicating to all employees the importance of adhering to the Modern Slavery Act 2018 and what this means.
- Exercising due diligence (as per below) when considering taking on new suppliers and undertaking reviews of our existing suppliers on a periodic basis.
 - Assessing the suppliers complete supply chain;
 - Evaluating the modern slavery stance of each new supplier; through being aware of the risks and the process to identify them.

Garry Spouge

MANAGING DIRECTOR